Martingale-style collar 32mm

The martingale-style collar, is thoughtfully designed to provide enhanced control during your dog's walk, even when opting for a collar over a harness.

It effortlessly slips over your dog's head and remains comfortably snug at its loosest setting. However, when your dog pulls during the walk, it gently tightens, offering you better control and ensuring a secure and comfortable experience.

The collar is 32mm wide. The collar is easily customisable by adding a lining or omitting the studs.

HOW TO MEASURE

Measuring your dog's neck size

The dog must be in a relaxed, standing position.

Use a flexible tape measure to measure the neck size where the collar will sit. A good position is normally in the middle and not the base of the neck. The tape measure must fit snugly, don't allow extra space.

We will align the neck measurement with the middle of five holes, which means you will have 2 adjustment holes on each side, ensuring a comfortable fit. If your dog is still growing, leave a note and we'll align the neck measurement with the smallest setting - you can add a note when checking out.

Aligning the neck size with collar size

We close the collar on the middle hole and make sure the inside measurement is the same as the neck size.

HOW TO MEASURE

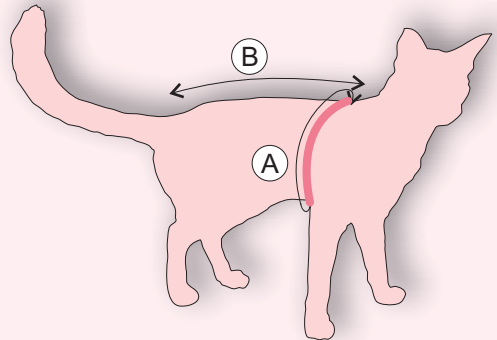

Measuring your dog's or cat's chest

The dog or cat must be in a relaxed, standing position. Use a flexible tape measure to measure the girth around her chest just behind the front legs and across the shoulder blades.

The tape measure must fit snugly. Harnesses are adjustable so do not allow extra space.
